3. The general principle appears to be that persons holding a certain post, but deserving of advancement to higher pay should be promoted to posts carrying high pay. Of late, several proposals to increase the sanctioned Scales of pay of posts in order to advance the prospects of their incumbents have been increasing. This appears to be objectionable both financially & administratively.

Esteemed Sir,

I was appointed Assistant-pandit of the Indigenous-Hospital in Mysore in January 1905 on a pay of Rs 15 and ever since then I have been discharging the duties entrusted to me to the Satisfaction of both my Superiors and the paticents who have been attending the Hospital.

Although my Superiors in office recommended that I should be given Some increment in recognition of my Services, I was not favoured with any promotion to my Salary.— As to my efficiency I beg leave to represent that I have not only acted as Senior-pandit oftentimes, but ever since Mr. Kemparamapandit fell ill in March 1912, I have been in Sole Charge of the Hospital doing the duties of Senior pandit in addition to my own until the present

Supt

Superintendent took Charge of the Hospital in March 1913.

Recommendations on previous occasions about bettering my prospects — especially the one from the Civil Surgeon 21st Sept 1912 — are all pending in the Municipality and I beg that the question may kindly be taken up and orders passed in the matter of increasing my pay. For this kindness I shall truly remain thankful.
